Re: CPM Update and Next Steps

The IESO is seeking advice from the SAC on the development of corporate performance measures (CPMs) for 2017 as part of the IESO's overall development of the 2017 – 2019 Business Plan.

The attached presentation reviews the valuable discussion and feedback provided by the SAC in October 2015 to help shape the measures for the current year and outlines the recent progress on the 2016 CPMs for reference as a starting point for developing measures for next year.

The IESO is seeking advice from SAC members on whether the level of detail in the 2016 CPMs is appropriate and if there are any areas the IESO should focus on for the development of the 2017 CPMs.

Sincerely,

Kim Marshall CFO and VP, Corporate Services
