

Toronto Local Advisory Committee – September 26, 2017 Meeting

Worksheet #2: Feedback on Broader Community Engagement

In addition to the LAC, feedback from the community is an important part of developing the plan. The purpose of today’s discussion is to provide feedback on the options for community engagement and prioritize the most important options. Feedback will be used in the development of the broader community engagement plan for the next Toronto IRRP.

Question: Which of the following outreach methods do you feel will be most effective for the next Toronto Regional Plan?

Please use the table below to work through your submission.

Engagement Method	Priority (check one)			Comments
	Low	Medium	High
Meetings with the City
Indigenous outreach
Discussion workbook
Stakeholder workshops
Webinars
Open houses
Bill inserts
Traditional media channels
Social media channels
On-line engagement
Enhanced social media
Utilizing LAC member channels

Question: What should be the IRRP engagement priorities?

Question: When should broader engagement begin?

Question: Would you or the entities you represent be interested in helping to engage on the IRRP?

Additional suggestions for engagement on the next Toronto IRRP:

Submissions can be provided at the LAC meeting, or sent to the IESO by October 13:
ontarioregionalplanning@ieso.ca