PAGE 1: Demand Response Stakeholder Questions

Q1: Name

Ryan Shaw

Q2: Organization

Rogers

Q3: How do you perceive the potential impacts of a DR Auction in your business?

We perceive it as valuable to all stakeholders in the province. We view it as a great opportunity to for Rogers (and for Rogers customers), although we need to better understand the market and some of the intricacies of implementation.

Q4: Are there barriers to participation that need to be addressed?

We still require some additional information in order to fully understand the process and the monetary value of participation.

Q5: The presentation discussed at the July 9 DR Public Information session outlined areas where input will be required. Are there other key areas of design to be considered within the stakeholder feedback scope?

Respondent skipped this question

Q6: What stakeholders and/or stakeholder groups should be involved in this engagement that are not already participating?

Respondent skipped this question

PAGE 3: Demand Response Pilots

Q7: Are the proposed pilot timelines appropriate to meet the expected learnings?

No,

Comments

The proposed pilot timelines are a bit longer then we originally expected, but we feel 1-2 years is a sufficient time frame,

Q8: Are the proposed program features appropriate to meet the expected learnings?

Yes

Demand Response Stakeholder Questions

Q9: Are the proposed enabling market rules and rule changes sufficient to allow for the proposed piloting?

Comments

Need additional information before we can comment.

Q10: Are there other areas of the market rules that need to be considered?

Need additional information before we can comment.

PAGE 4: Transitional Market Rules

Q11: Are there any sections of the DR3 contract not mentioned which should be included in the market rule amendment?

Need additional information before we can comment.

Q12: Additional Comments

We are a relatively new player in the DR space and thus have much more to learn before we can provide valuable feedback on the market rules. We fully support the IESO's move to a capacity market and feel communication companies are in a unique position to add value to the province. We thank the IESO for inviting us to the session and look forward to participating in future discussions.
