Good afternoon,

You are invited to register for a webinar on Tuesday, December 1 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. to learn more about the Niagara Bulk Plan and the work currently underway to assess emerging electricity needs across the Niagara region.

To support economic development and address emerging electricity needs in the region, the IESO is continuing the development of the Niagara Bulk Plan to better understand future electricity demand and assess whether the high-voltage transmission system can continue to reliably serve customers. The purpose of this webinar is to provide an update on the identified priority needs, options screening, and draft recommendations in the Welland, Thorold area, and Hamilton area, and to solicit feedback on the proposed path forward. The webinar will also include a brief update on the Niagara Integrated Regional Resource Plan (IRRP) and its role in supporting long-term electricity planning in the Niagara region.

Connecting the IESO's work to communities and stakeholders is a critical component of developing a bulk electricity plan. The IESO encourages broad participation in the process, including but not limited to Indigenous communities, municipalities, customers, businesses, community organizations, and members of the public.
