CEC Customer Preferences Survey

| Topic   | Feedback   |
|---|--|
| What are the most relevant findings from the CEC customer survey? | The guidance from customers on preferred clean energy credit offerings, type of generation and price they are willing to pay for PPAs and unbundled credit purchases are most relevant to focus the next steps of this engagement. Based on this, IESO should explore further how demand for PPAs could drive new investment in the renewable generation assets that will be required to meet Ontario's energy supply needs. This includes convening cross industry stakeholders to design an Ontario framework to address this opportunity and examine implications relating to global adjustment and associated electricity cost allocation. |
