

IESO Engagement

From: Skimming, Jamie
Sent: September 22, 2021 4:45 PM
To: IESO Engagement
Subject: IESO DER Potential Study - power generation from waste heat

Hello,

Could power generation from waste heat recovery be considered for future DER measures?

The City of London is about to commission its Organic Rankine Cycle engine project, which is expected to displace 3.75 GWh of electrical consumption for the Greenway Wastewater Treatment Plant. It is likely that other industrial process with high volume and temperature gas streams could use similar technology.

<https://pub-london.escribemeetings.com/filestream.ashx?DocumentId=62625>

Thanks

Jamie Skimming, P.Eng.
Manager, Energy & Climate Change
City of London