Transmission Asset End-of-Life: Asset Replacement Information Process – Draft October 29, 2018

Introduction

The IESO will be seeking feedback from stakeholders on a draft process for collecting information on asset end-of-life, or expected service life from transmission asset owners. The draft process also identifies a set of criteria for determining if an asset replacement need may benefit from consideration in a bulk or regional planning processes.

This engagement plan outlines the objectives, approach, timeline and considerations for engaging stakeholders in the development of this process. This engagement plan may be subject to review and update as the process evolves. All comments and enquiries on this engagement can be directed to engagement@ieso.ca.

Engagement Objectives

The objectives of this engagement are to ensure that stakeholders understand this initiative and can provide feedback on the draft asset replacement information collection process and products which support emerging trends and new priorities within the bulk and regional planning processes.

Stakeholders and Communities

The IESO encourages all interested parties to participate in this engagement through the public engagement sessions described in the Approach section below. The IESO anticipates that this initiative will be of particular interest to transmitters, local distribution companies (LDCs), transmission-connected customers and the Ontario Energy Board (OEB). The IESO will also seek input from the Regional Planning Process Advisory Group.

Approach

The implementation of this engagement plan will be in accordance with the IESO's approved engagement principles.

This is a public engagement process. All materials will be posted on the dedicated IESO engagement webpage for this initiative. In addition, any information/input supplied by interested parties will also be posted (with consent).

The approach for this engagement initiative includes opportunities to provide input through various channels such as webinars and written feedback. The project team will consider all relevant input and illustrate how feedback was considered to shape the stated objectives.
