LT2 RFP Energy + Capacity Streams

Topic	Feedback
Do you have any questions or comments regarding the clarifications the IESO provided regarding the targets, timing, eligibility or other details of the LT2 RFP Energy and Capacity streams?	To provide flexibility and optionality for the IESO, the LT2 capacity stream should allow for long duration energy storage resources to participate, with a distinct understanding that there is high value in duration for system operators as they manage inflexible resources on the grid. A clear signal on long duration energy storage within the LT2 capacity stream will result in the highest quality bids from developers and increase competition overall, which will be beneficial to the IESO and ratepayers. A nearer-term signal on LDES will provide an “insurance policy” to the IESO in that it will maximize the number of LDES bids, which will give the IESO more resources to choose from—this will provide the IESO with flexibility in procurement decision-making as it continues to forecast demand over the next 18 months.
