Subject: Regional Electricity Planning in North & East of Sudbury – Webinar on March 31

Regional electricity planning is underway for the North & East of Sudbury region. The IESO will host a webinar on Thursday, March 31 at 2:00 p.m. to provide an overview of the regional electricity planning process and our proposed engagement plans with you over the coming months. We will also be seeking your input to inform the electricity demand forecast as the first step in developing an electricity plan – Integrated Regional Resource Plan (IRRP) – for the region.

Register to participate in the March 31 webinar. Materials will be available in advance and written comments will be invited until April 21. Upon registration, you will receive an email confirmation containing a calendar invitation with meeting details. Please save this invitation to your calendar to ensure you have the access details for the event.

The North & East of Sudbury region encompasses the Town of Moosonee, Town of Hearst, Municipality of East Ferris, Town of Kirkland Lake, Town of Kaspuskasing, Town of Cochrane, Town of Iroquois Falls, City of Timmins, City of Temiskaming Shores, City of Greater Sudbury, Municipality of West Nipissing, and City of North Bay. There are also several Indigenous communities in this planning region including Constance Lake First Nation, Flying Post First Nation, Matachewan First Nation, Mattagami First Nation, Missanabie Cree, Moose Cree First Nation, Nipissing First Nation, Taykwa Tagamou First Nation, Temagami First Nation, Wahgoshig First Nation and Wahnapiatae First Nation. Northern Lights Métis Council, Timmins Métis Council, Temiskaming Métis Council and Chapleau Métis Council are also included in this region. Visit our website to learn more about the North & East of Sudbury Region or for more information about the regional electricity planning process.

All interested parties are invited and encouraged to participate including, but not limited to, local municipalities, Indigenous and Métis communities, businesses, stakeholders and members of the general public.
